1. In late April 1951, Volkspolizei Dienststelle (VPD) 3242 was located at Burg airfield and numbered about 1,800 police. Two hundred of them had been recruited since December 1950.
2. The VPD was organized into 3 infantry Kommandos, 1 artillery Kommando and 7 Sonderabteilungen. The 1st Sonderabteilung was a reconnaissance unit, the 2d a signal unit, the 3d an engineer unit, the 4th an AT artillery unit, the 5th an AAA unit, the 6th a mortar unit and the 7th an armored unit. The 1st Sonderabteilung consisted of 2 motorcycle Zuege, currently equipped with only bicycles and 1 maintenance section. Twenty-three motorcycles were available, but were not used because the police had not yet been taught to ride them. An armored reconnaissance Zug, which would probably also be assigned to the 1st Sonderabteilung, was attached to the 7th Sonderabteilung. The 6th Sonderabteilung (Mortar) consisted of 2 Zuege of 3 Gruppen each.
3. In addition to German and Soviet small arms, the unit was equipped with 2 T-34 tanks; 2 German SP guns; several guns of various calibers, including AT and AA guns; an undetermined number of Soviet light, medium and heavy mortars; an undetermined number of Maxim machine guns; 1 model 42 machine gun and about 8 armored ammunition carriers.
